GOSPEL: VALUE: Our Gospel Value this coming week is Justice. Please reflect on this at home with your child.

Weekly Reflection

We have been focusing this week on the words of last Sunday's Gospel from Matthew and the message of showing forgiveness and compassion to everyone around us; both people close to us and those who we do not know. When people hurt us or are unkind to us it can be very difficult to accept their apology, but Jesus shows us that when we follow his example and show others compassion. This brings us closer to our Father in Heaven.

We have had another great week in school. The children are settled, calm and happy and working very hard. It is a pleasure to visit the classes and to see pupils enthusiastic and trying so hard. We are very proud of the wonderful start they have made to the school year. The weather has been very unpredictable this week and there is no doubt that there is an autumnal chill in the air!

Wishing everyone a wonderful weekend.

Mrs Kerrell

Headteacher

Wishing everyone a wonderful weekend.

Festival of Holy Cross

What a wonderful event this was shared between our school and our parish. It was fantastic to work together to raise money for the common good of our school, our parish and for Cafod. The event was organised and delivered by the wonderful Mrs Gallagher and Daniella Parr with lots of help and support from school staff and parishioners. We thank everyone who helped, who came along or contributed in any way to the success of the event.

We raised an incredible £3784 which was £1261 each and some valuable funding for our school!

We want to make some improvements to the learning environment this year including a dedicated learning space for KS1 and an additional reading and library space. We also want to improve the reading corners in each classroom, improve them with a better selection of books and make them inviting spaces which encourage a love of reading. We have no extra funding for these 'extras' in our budget so everything that our school and parish community does in support of us goes directly to improvements for the children.

RE Insight Morning

We are continuing with our initiative to invite parents and carers into school to see learning in action and to share in the great teaching and experiences that are delivered by staff at Holy Cross. Our next Insight Morning will be on Monday 2nd October and will offer a chance to come and see RE and Collective Worship in action. Parents and carers of Pupils in Key Stage 2 are welcome to attend our Monday Collective Worship at 9.00am and Key Stage 1 parents and carers the assembly at 9.30am. You will then be able to visit RE lessons throughout the morning and Mrs Kerrell will offer tours of the school to share with you the work that we are doing to ensure that our school community is living out our school mission statement. Please sign up for this at the office.

PTA

There was a PTA meeting on Tuesday 19th September. During this meeting it was decided that they will be known as Friends of Holy Cross. Katy Hollingworth and Michelle Hume were voted as co-Chair and Anna Harmas is secretary and Karen Slater is the treasurer.

Look out for upcoming events...

Prayer Bags

Every year group now has a Prayer Bag which the children will have a chance to bring home over the year. The instructions and items are in each bag and we hope that you can find a few moments together to read a Bible story or pray together. They will be given out by our Head Boys and Head Girls on Fridays. Warning: each bag contains a candle and we have told the children that they must not light it without an adult present. Please complete the book and send the Prayer Bag back in on Wednesday to the Office. It is very important to look after it and the contents carefully and ensure that they do not get lost or damaged please.

Jewellery

Please remember that pupils are not allowed to wear jewellery to school and this includes clear plastic studs. These are not allowed for Health and Safety reasons. If your child wears these or other earrings to school we will ask them to remove them.

Chaplaincy Club

Our first KS1 chaplaincy group was a huge success. We discussed the gospel Matthew 20:1-6, we talked about how we could live the message of the gospel in our own lives. The children had some great ideas and produced some beautiful illustrations. I look forward to welcoming them back next week. Mrs Timbrell

Year 6 St Mark's Visit

On Wednesday 13th September, Year 6 were given a fantastic opportunity to spend the morning experiencing the life of a Year 7 child at St Mark's. To start the day, the children were taken on a tour of the school. After this, Eagles took part in an English lesson where they were given clues to solve a murder/mystery as part of learning about suspense genres. They then took part in a PE lesson where they played table tennis.

Owls class went to an Art lesson where they learnt different painting techniques. After this, they took part in a History lesson learning about timelines and chronology.

The children had a brilliant day and it was so lovely to see so many of our past pupils, especially the new Year 7s who looked super smart in their new uniforms.

The children also enjoyed lunch in the canteen!

National Fitness Week

This week was National Fitness Week! We spoke about how our fitness impacts both our physical health but also our mental health. The children learnt that exercising makes us feel happy and improves our energy levels. The children all completed a variety of activities that promoted both physical and mental wellbeing. Well done children!

Livewire Mental Health Drama Workshop

On Friday, Livewire Community Theatre for Young People visited Year 3 for drama and music workshops.

The children enjoyed themselves immensely and learned and had lots of fun singing in different styles and improvising scenarios.

Below are links to information about Livewire, who provide evening drama and music workshops from Year 3.

What Parents & Carers Need to Know about

ROBLOX

PEGI RATING
7+

WHAT ARE THE RISKS?

Roblox is one of the most popular video games on the market. By 2020, the game's makers were claiming that more than half of children in the USA play it. As a 'sandbox' title, Roblox offers a huge amount of creative freedom: it lets players create their own gaming experiences with the Roblox Studio to build custom levels and games, which can then be shared with other players online. Roblox fosters creative thinking and enjoys a robust online community of fans.

CONTACT WITH STRANGERS

Roblox encourages players to communicate online (including a group chat facility). This could expose children to risks such as scammers, online predators, harassment, griefers and more. The in-game chat has some filters, but isn't perfect: players can still send harmful messages to others – such as scam links or general hostility – while predators can reach out to children directly.

PUBLIC SERVERS

Roblox has private or VIP servers which allow people to play exclusively with their friends, but this costs money. Most Roblox players will instead be on public servers that anyone can join. Servers can host games which focus on all kinds of aspects, including direct player interaction. Some games and servers, therefore, will put children more at risk of contact from strangers than others.

ONLINE DATING

These are also called 'ODers' and are quite common in Roblox. An ODer is an individual who joins a game with the intention of finding someone to date online – and eventually meet in person. Such online dating is against the Roblox community guidelines, but this usually doesn't deter ODer. Some player-built Roblox game worlds have even been designed with online dating specifically in mind.

IN-APP PURCHASES

Roblox is actually free to download and play, but bear in mind that there are some hidden costs. Players are encouraged to make purchases in the game, for example, using real money. People can also buy extra Robux (the in-game currency) to spend on cosmetic items in the game, while it's possible to purchase a private or VIP server.

Advice for Parents & Carers

SET PARENTAL CONTROLS

Roblox comes with several parental control options, which are explained well on the game's official website. It's essential to enter the correct date of birth for your child, as that allows Roblox to automatically apply the appropriate chat filters. The game also allows parents and carers to set monthly spending restrictions and monitor their child's account.

DISABLE PRIVATE MESSAGING

Roblox's private messaging function raises the risk of children being contacted by people they may not want to speak with – potentially leading to bullying, harassment, toxicity and scam attempts. The game allows you to disable messages from anyone who hasn't been added as a friend on your child's account.

PRIVATE SERVERS

If your child has some genuine friends to play Roblox online with, paying for a private or VIP server decreases the risk of contact from strangers. Even then, however, some players could invite other people – who might not necessarily be child friendly – into the private server. If your child is a Roblox fan, it's important to talk with them regularly about who they are playing the game with.

MONITOR SPENDING

If they don't understand they're using real money, it's easy for children to accidentally spend a sizeable amount in the game. Using parental controls to place limits on their spending will help avoid any nasty financial surprises. Ensuring that you have two-factor authentication on your payment accounts also makes it harder for your child to spend money inadvertently.

DEALING WITH STRANGERS

At some point in their development, your child will need to learn how to deal with strangers online. Show them how to block and report any users who are upsetting them or asking uncomfortable questions. Talking to them about what's OK to discuss – and what they should never tell a stranger online – will help them understand how to communicate with other people online safely.

Based on the gospel for Sunday 24 September, Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time: Matthew 20:1-16

"The last will be first, and the first, last"

Whether it is football, cricket, tennis, or any other game, it regularly happens that those who are expected to win, lose. We often think we can guess what will happen, but can be surprised by what actually does.

Sometimes we even think we can guess what God thinks or says or does.

Today's gospel story can prepare us to be ready for a surprise, and its message that everyone is important, is very clear.

In our world today it seems that the gulf between the rich and the poor grows wider every day.

Too many people are not paid a living wage, and those whose lives are being destroyed by poverty and injustice, may not draw much comfort from the idea that one day all will be well. They need to know and experience that we care for them today.

As Christians, our lives should be lived showing that we love God and our neighbour, and this needs to be apparent not only in what we say but more importantly in what we do.

May we follow the message of Jesus
in showing practical care
for anyone in need.
Amen.

The Words of Pope Francis

THE Wednesday WORD

SHARING SUNDAY'S GOSPEL WITH PARENTS & FAMILIES

Dear Parents and Carers,

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus uses the images of workers and a vineyard to show us something about the kingdom of Heaven and God's generosity.

God's ways are not our ways. At first, it may appear unfair that the workers who started early were only paid the same as those who arrived later. But, on reflection, we see that not only was the Landowner being fair by paying what had been agreed, he was being overly generous through rewarding everyone equally (even those who came at the last hour).

Wednesday 20th September 2023

God's generosity is unlimited and offered to each one of us. Pope Francis reminds us, "How generous is God, let us ask him for the grace of being generous too."

Find out more through enjoying a very special time together this evening, hearing your child's thoughts about this Sunday's Gospel and this Wednesday's word, which is GENEROUS.

THE GOSPEL IN CHURCH Sunday 24th September 2023

Jesus said to his disciples: "The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner going out at daybreak to hire workers for his vineyard. He made an agreement with the workers for one denarius a day, and sent them to his vineyard. Then at various times throughout the day, even right up to the eleventh hour, the landowner hired and sent more workers into his vineyard. In the evening, he said to his manager, 'Call the workers and pay everyone one denarius each.' The ones who had worked all day grumbled at the landowner, complaining that he paid the men who came last the same amount as them. The landowner said, 'My friends, I am not being unjust to you. Did we not agree on one denarius? Take your earnings and go. I choose to pay the last-comer as much as I pay you. Have I no right to do what I like with my own? Why be envious because I am generous?' Thus the last will be first, and the first, last."

You are warmly invited to learn more about the Gospel through your local parish church.

"May we learn to be generous in giving;
to love without limits."

Pope Francis

This Sunday's Gospel can remind us how God has important work for each one of us, helping to make the world a better place, building God's kingdom. We are also reminded of God's generosity. God loves us and is more generous than we could ever imagine – wanting to take care of all our needs.

1 Our Special Time Together

Enjoy reading the Gospel overleaf (or below for younger children)

Jesus said to his friends: "The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who hired some workers in the morning and agreed to pay them a silver coin for a full day's work. Much later in the day he hired more workers to work on his land. Then, at the end of the day, he paid each person the same amount. Those who started in the morning were unhappy that those who started later were being paid the same. But the landowner said to them, 'I paid you what we agreed; so why be jealous just because I am generous?'"

Why were some workers jealous? Which word or words stood out for you in this Sunday's Gospel, and why? See the picture opposite. What does it make you think about?

Loving God & Each Other

"Lord Jesus, teach me to be generous – to give and not to count the cost." St Francis Xavier

Ask your child what the word 'generous' means to them. Can they remember a time, at home, at school or in the community, when they were generous, when they last gave something away without expecting anything in return? Who do they know who is a generous person – that is, someone who is willing to share and to put others' needs first? How does your child feel when someone is generous towards them and gives them first choice or shares a special treat with them?

"God is generous. He shows us all his love and encourages us to be generous." Pope Francis

Being generous brings us closer to God. God wants us to be generous and, just like the workers in the Gospel, it's never too late to start! We can be generous by sharing our possessions, but God also calls us to be generous with our time and our love. How can we be generous in this coming week? Perhaps we can: give some of our time to talk to someone in need; try especially hard to share with others; give any toys or unused items to a charity; offer to help someone – maybe a new classmate who has joined our school.

Dear Lord Jesus, thank you for your generous love. Please help us to grow in generosity and to do your work in the world with a loving and generous heart. Amen.

Encountering Christ
Prayerfully preparing for the Sunday Mass and praying in particular for our school families

Preparing for the Mass of Sunday 24th September 2023 - The Twenty Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Relax & Remember

Set aside 10 -15 minutes and create a suitable environment by removing any distractions. Make sure that you are comfortable. Perhaps light a candle. Make the sign of the cross † and remain still for a minute of settling silence. Call to mind the love that God has for you. Remember that through this scripture our Lord is truly present. Then read the Gospel, preferably aloud and slowly, and pay attention to any words that stand out. If any do, meditate on them for a few minutes and be invited into a dialogue with God.

2 Read

Taken from the Gospel for Sunday 24th September 2023 - The Generosity of God (Matthew 20:1-16)

Jesus said to his disciples: 'The kingdom of Heaven is like a landowner going out at daybreak to hire workers for his vineyard. He made an agreement with the workers for one denarius a day and sent them to his vineyard. Going out at about the third hour he saw others standing idle in the market place and said to them, "You go to my vineyard too and I will give you a fair wage." So they went. At about the sixth hour and again at about the ninth hour, he went out and did the same. Then at about the eleventh hour he went out and found more men standing around, and he said to them, "Why have you been standing here idle all day?" "Because no one has hired us," they answered. He said to them, "You go into my vineyard too." In the evening, the owner of the vineyard said to his bailiff, "Call the workers and pay them their wages, starting with the last arrivals and ending with the first." So those who were hired at about the eleventh hour came forward and received one denarius each. When the first came, they expected to get more, but they too received one denarius each. They took it, but grumbled at the landowner. "The men who came last," they said, "have done only one hour, and you have treated them the same as us, though we have done a heavy day's work in all the heat." He answered one of them and said, "My friend, I am not being unjust to you; did we not agree on one denarius? Take your earnings and go. I choose to pay the last-comer as much as I pay you. Have I no right to do what I like with my own? Why be envious because I am generous?" Thus the last will be first, and the first, last.'

3 Reflect

After spending a few minutes considering this Gospel, continue by reading Fr Henry Wansbrough's reflection.

It is hard not to sympathize with the workers who have sweated it out right through the day in the hot sun. The idlers who have hardly got earth on their spades or grease on their hands get a great bonus and I get no bonus at all! Is this fair? No. God is not fair. You can't apply the concept of "fairness" to God at all. We can't enter into a reckoning with God. God does not calculate as we do. In the terms of this world, this is obvious enough. The wicked do prosper, while honesty and high moral standards, instead of being rewarded are often simply mocked. Can we go deeper and say that the reward is in heaven? This hardly fits with the way Jesus worked here on earth. He did not reward the virtuous. He said he was the doctor who had come to the sick. His favourites were the worst of society, tax-collectors and prostitutes, not even amiable rascals. Heaven was open to anyone who accepted him. It is no good looking for fairness in God, for this implies that we deserve something. We cannot claim to 'deserve' anything; we are simply called into a loving relationship and to put our trust in Jesus.

What does this Sunday's Gospel say about the generosity of God? When have you experienced God's generosity, his kindness and forgiveness in your own life?

Dom Henry Wansbrough OSB

4 Respond & Request

Now slowly and prayerfully read the Gospel once again but this time in silence. Consider how this Gospel could apply to your life in general. Then thank God for any insight you may have received. Conclude by asking God to bless you with one of the following spiritual gifts to help you act on any resolution you have made: love, understanding, wisdom, faithfulness, peace, self control, patience, or joy. Please remember to pray for the Church and particularly our school families. Then conclude by requesting the prayers of Our Lady & St Joseph.

The Wednesday Word is under the patronage of St Joseph, Patron Saint of Families and Protector of the Church
Within the tradition of the Catholic Church, each Wednesday is dedicated to St Joseph

WEDNESDAY WORD PLUS †

Fr Henry's reflections on the first and second readings of Sunday 24th September 2023

First Reading: Our God: Rich in Forgiving

Isaiah 55:6-9

Seek the Lord while he is still to be found, call to him while he is still near. Let the wicked man abandon his way, the evil man his thoughts. Let him turn back to the Lord who will take pity on him, to our God who is rich in forgiving; for my thoughts are not your thoughts, my ways not your ways - it is the Lord who speaks. Yes, the heavens are as high above earth as my ways are above your ways, my thoughts above your thoughts.

This is the triumphant conclusion of the second major section of the Book of Isaiah: God's ways are utterly different from human thinking. The passage is obviously chosen to be read in church this Sunday because it looks towards God's 'irresponsible' behaviour in the gospel. In many ways it is comforting to think that God is not like ourselves. One reason why we cling to God is to be liberated from ourselves and to be brought into his marvellous light, living a life freed from the restrictions, frustrations and self-centredness that surrounds and penetrates us. Obviously God does not have our faults of selfishness, laziness, malice, lust and greed. More than that, not being bodily or limited in any way, God does not plan or think like ourselves. God does not think things out with 'Yes' and 'No', working in concepts or sentences. God does not laboriously plan what to do, weighing consequences, advantages and disadvantages! Even our love is always tinged with self-interest and concern for ourselves. God's love is entirely generous and out-going, a limitless cascade of love, deluging and penetrating each of us.

When do we love as God loves us?

Second Reading: Life to Me is Christ

Philippians 1:20-24.27

Christ will be glorified in my body, whether by my life or by my death. Life to me, of course, is Christ, but then death would bring me something more; but then again, if living in this body means doing work which is having good results - I do not know what I should choose. I am caught in this dilemma: I want to be gone and be with Christ, which would be very much the better, but for me to stay alive in this body is a more urgent need for your sake. Avoid anything in your everyday lives that would be unworthy of the gospel of Christ.

This is the first of four Sunday readings from Paul's letter to the Philippians. They were his favourite community, linked to him with a strong bond of affection and intimacy, the only community from which he would accept gifts of money. Paul writes this letter from prison, not sure whether he is to live or die, not sure either which is his stronger desire. For life is his bond with the Christian communities he has founded, and which still need his help. But the centre of his life is the total rootedness in Christ, of which death can only be the completion. As he writes elsewhere, the Christian has been baptised into Christ's death, dipped into Christ's death, and so is soaked in Christ's death, waiting only for it to be completed in Christ's resurrection. If we really believe this with the strength of Paul's conviction, it gives a whole new centre to life, a whole new perspective on the life which is Christ's. Death will then not be a matter of fear and dread, but a bursting out of the limitations of this life into the glory of the resurrection.

What does it mean to be rooted in Christ?

“The centre of his life is the total rootedness in Christ.”
