GOSPEL VALUE: Our Gospel Value for the week after the half term holiday is Forgiveness. Please reflect on this at home with your child.

Weekly Reflection on the Gospel and Holy Day this coming week.

This week we are focusing on The Ascension of Jesus into heaven to be with God our Father and this is marked as a Holy Day on the 29th May.

At this time, we think of Jesus's disciples and we can only imagine their confusion and pain. Jesus had turned their worlds upside down. They had abandoned everything dear to them, including their homes, to follow Him. He was their secure place and now He says He is leaving them again. However, Jesus tells them about things to come so that when they happen, the disciples will be reassured that all is well and part of God's plan. Jesus reassures them that with the Spirit there will be true love and connection with Him and his Father. All will be well, there will be peace of mind and heart.

"Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid."

We are reminded of this, of the eternal love of Jesus and of God our father. We know that Jesus is in heaven and that even though we cannot see him that He is with us always, walking by our side and raising us up in times of happiness and sadness.

Wishing everyone a wonderful half term.

Relationship and Sex Education

We will be delivering our Relationship and Sex Education teaching (Journey in Love) to our Year 5 and 6 pupils in the week beginning 30th June. We would like to invite parents and carers (only) to a meeting about the content of the RSE curriculum on Tuesday 24th June at 3.15pm. Children in Year 3 and 4 and Key Stage One, will also be taught the relationships aspect of this curriculum. For more information please follow this link to the RSE curriculum, which was written by Brentwood Diocese-please scroll to the bottom :

Isle of Wight Meeting

We held a meeting this week for our Year 6 parents who have children attending the Isle of Wight residential in July. We will send out the power point presentation to all Year 6 parents. Please collect the important forms that need to be completed from the office as soon as possible as these must be handed in as hard copies.

Summer Uniform-sun Safety

All children should now be wearing the summer uniform-not a shirt and tie. It is likely to be hot weather after half term so please ensure that your child has a hat (they will not be allowed outside without one), a refillable water bottle and sun cream applied at the beginning of every day. The children spend a lot of time outdoors next half term and it is very important that they are safe in the sun.

Sports morning and Summer picnic (Fete)

A reminder that we will be having our traditional Sports Day races in the morning on Wednesday 18th June and then continuing the day with the summer picnic (Fete) in the afternoon. We really hope that you can join us for the day and you are welcome to bring a packed lunch which you can have on the field with your child.

Cow Day

Cow Day was an amazing day! We have seen so many amazing costumes, thank you to all the parents for organising this. This morning in assembly the children learnt why we were raising money by dressing as cows, this was so we can help a remote family receive a cow and be trained how to use it to help farm their land and use the milk to help provide for their family.

Each class has completed an activity to help them further understand, CAFOD's World Gifts.

Victory

Congratulations to our football team on their triumph in the Harlow primary schools Stacey Pardoe cup. A full report will be on our website.

Love

joy, commitment, dedication, sacrifice

Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. Matthew 23: 10-12

ATTENDANCE MATTERS

Congratulations to this week's winners of the KS1 Attendance Award, Ladybirds achieving a fantastic 100% attendance. Well done! The winners of the KS2 Attendance Award, are Eagles also attaining 96% attendance. Well done!

Please ensure you are sending your child into school everyday, unless they are not well enough to attend. Attending school is so important and makes a huge difference to your child's learning. The gates open at 8:30am until 8.50am.

It is essential you notify us of your child's absence by 9am either by telephone or using the Arbor report absence option on every day of absence. We need full details of why your child is unable to attend school. We are frequently having to contact parents, to find out why their child is absent from school. If you do not notify us of the reason for your child's absence it may not be authorised.

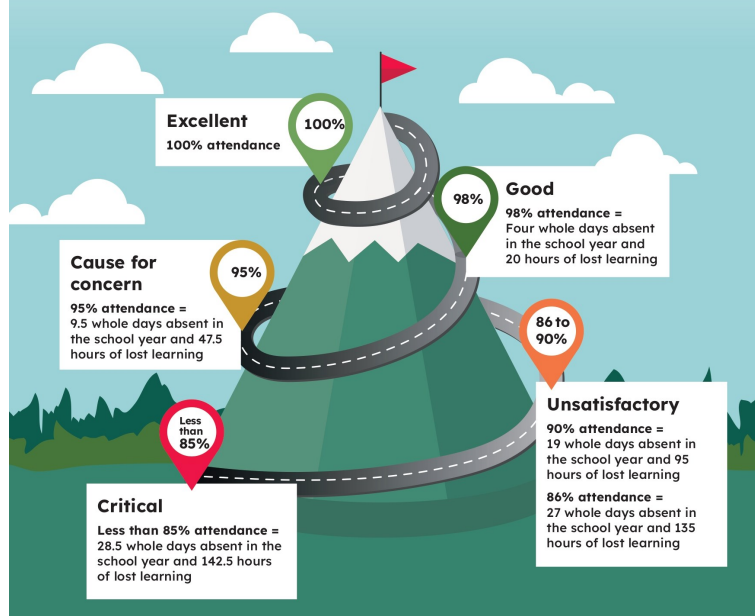

Absences over 3 days require supporting medical evidence, for the additional absence to be authorised. Medical evidence can take the form of prescriptions, antibiotics and medical appointments.

Parents of children below attendance targets will be invited in for a meeting with the Educational Welfare Officer.

Based on the gospel for Sunday 25 May, Sixth Sunday of Easter, John 14:23-29

"Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid."

Imagine the confusion and pain of the disciples. Jesus had turned their worlds upside down. They had abandoned everything dear to them, including their homes, to follow him. He was their secure place and now he says he is leaving them.

Jesus tells them about things to come so that when they happen the disciples will be reassured that all is well and part of God's plan. This seems to be a plan that promises pain, but Jesus reassures them that with the Spirit there will be true love and connection with him and his Father. All will be well, there will be peace of mind and heart.

Jesus reminds the disciples that for them this love grows from obedience to all he has taught them, and all that the Spirit will continue to inspire in them.

Don't we yearn for that peace that passes all understanding, a peace that the world cannot give?

When we stop, turn off from all our troubles and listen to the Spirit, reminded of Jesus' teaching, we can arise with Jesus. We can go from a place of doubt, loneliness and pain and truly hear Jesus' words, "Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid... we will come and make our home with [you]."

God of peace,
thank you for making your home in us. We are sorry for the times we can't hear your Spirit and your peace is elusive. We pray that we might live this peace, bringing your love more alive in the world.
Amen.

The Words of Pope Leo XIV

Every word of the Gospel is like a seed sown in the soil of our lives. This soil is our heart, as well as the world, our community, and the church. The word of God fertilizes and awakens every reality.

Enjoy reading this Sunday's Gospel

Jesus said to his disciples, "Those who love me will listen to my words and keep them, and my Father will love them, and we shall come to them and make our home with them. Those who do not love me do not keep my words. And my word is not my own: it is the word of the Father who sent me. I have said these things to you while still with you; but the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all the things I have said to you. Peace I leave to you, my own peace I give to you, a peace the world cannot give, this is my gift to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. I am going away, and shall return. I am going to the Father."

From the Gospel of Sunday 25th May 2025 Cf. John 14:23-29 (the 6th Sunday of Easter, Year C)

Which words stood out for you in this Gospel, and why? What does the picture make you think about? Now enjoy exploring this Wednesday's word, which is PEACE.

To colour the picture for this Sunday's Gospel, please see the back page.

"Let's promote friendship and respect between people of different religious traditions in order to build a world of peace." Pope Francis

What did Jesus say his gift was to his friends? The instructions given by Jesus at the 'Last Supper', which we read about in this Sunday's Gospel, remind us that the peace Jesus gives is a special inner peace which comes from receiving the Holy Spirit into our lives. Through the sacrifice he made on the cross, Jesus won this peace for us. Ask your child what the word 'peace' means to them. Ask them when they feel most at peace, or when they feel most safe and not worried about anything. Do they know someone who is a good peacemaker - someone who always helps to ease trouble because they bring God's love with them?

"Dear young people, let us pray for peace in our hearts." Pope Francis

True peace (the removal of all anxiety, worry and envy) comes only from God. This peace is not dependent on peaceful conditions: we can experience it even in the midst of trouble or uncertainty. Peace, like love, is a gift to share. How can we bring peace to others in this coming week? Perhaps we can: do what our parents and teachers ask us to do; not tease or make fun of friends, brothers or sisters; remember to smile when we meet people; try to be peacemakers if our friends are arguing. Why not, as a family, visit justice-and-peace.org.uk, get involved and help to promote peace around the world?

Dear Lord Jesus, thank you for sending the Holy Spirit so that we can know your perfect peace. Please help us to share that peace with others. Amen

Encountering Christ

The Wednesday Prayer Custom for Homes, Schools & Parishes

Prayerfully preparing for Sunday Mass with special prayers for our school families

Set aside 10-15 minutes and create a suitable environment by removing any distractions. Make sure that you are comfortable. Perhaps light a candle. Make the sign of the cross and remain still for a minute of settling silence.

Remember that through this scripture our Lord is truly present. Read the Gospel, aloud and slowly, and pay attention to any words that stand out. If any do, meditate on them for a few minutes and be invited into a dialogue with God.

The Gospel for Sunday 25th May 2025

THE PROMISE OF THE SPIRIT

Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone loves me he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him and make our home with him. Those who do not love me do not keep my words. And my word is not my own: it is the word of the one who sent me. I have said these things to you while still with you; but the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all I have said to you. Peace I bequeath to you, my own peace I give you, a peace the world cannot give, this is my gift to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. You heard me say: I am going away, and shall return. If you loved me you would have been glad to know that I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I. I have told you this now before it happens, so that when it does happen you may believe."

Taken from John 14:23-29 The Sixth Sunday of Easter, Year C

Reflect

After reading the Gospel, did any words stand out? If they did, ponder or discuss them before proceeding with the reflection.

After spending a few minutes considering this Gospel, continue by reading Fr Henry Wansbrough's reflection.

In these final discourses of Jesus at the Last Supper (as he sketches the outlines of his future Church) there are four passages which promise the coming of a Paraclete or Advocate, the Holy Spirit. 'Paraclete' and 'Advocate' mean the same: someone who is called to your side as a supporter, often in a legal situation. The Father will send this Paraclete, in the name and power of Jesus, so that the Paraclete will make Christ present in the Church in a new way. The Paraclete will strengthen Jesus' disciples with Christ's own strength. The Paraclete will lead the disciples into all truth, so that they gradually come to a fuller understanding of all the implications of the teaching of Jesus. Like any legal advocate, the Paraclete will provide the followers of Jesus with the power in teaching and argument to withstand opposition. This is the power which will guide the Church in ages to come, not only the official teachers of the Church, the successors of the apostles, but all the faithful who preserve and enrich the tradition of the Church by their prophetic office. The decree of Vatican II on the Church leaves no doubt that not only the call to sanctity but also participation in the prophetic office of Christ extends to all the members of the Church; this is an inspiring and awesome responsibility for us all.

For what special task do I most need the Paraclete's strength and guidance?

Dom Henry Wansbrough OSB

Respond & Request

Now slowly and prayerfully read the Gospel once again but this time in silence. Consider how this Gospel could apply to your life in general. Thank God for any insight you may have received.

Then ask God to bless you with a spiritual gift to help you act on any resolution you have made. Perhaps: love, hope, understanding, wisdom, faithfulness, peace, patience, humility, joy, forgiveness, self-control, courage, generosity, faith or something else.

Pray for Families

This Wednesday's word for our school families is PEACE!

After praying for your loved ones, please remember to pray for our present and future Church, particularly for the families connected to our schools. You may want to conclude this special weekly time with a simple prayer such as:

St Joseph, Patron Saint of Families and Protector of the Church, pray for us. Mary, Star of Evangelisation, pray for us. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

WEDNESDAY WORD PLUS †

Fr Henry's reflections on the first and second readings of Sunday 25th May 2025

1st Reading: Acts 15:1-2. 22-29

The Council at Jerusalem

Some men came down from Judaea and taught the brothers, "Unless you have yourselves circumcised in the tradition of Moses you cannot be saved." This led to disagreement, and after Paul and Barnabas had a long argument with these men it was arranged that Paul and Barnabas and others of the church should go up to Jerusalem and discuss the problem with the apostles and elders. Then the apostles and elders decided to choose delegates to send to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; the whole church concurred with this. They chose Judas known as Barsabbas and Silas, both leading men in the brotherhood, and gave them this letter to take with them: 'The apostles and elders, your brothers, send greetings to the brothers of pagan birth in Antioch, Syria and Cilicia. We hear that some of our members have disturbed you with their demands and have unsettled your minds. They acted without any authority from us, and so we have decided unanimously to elect delegates and to send them to you with Barnabas and Paul, men we highly respect who have dedicated their lives to the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Accordingly we are sending you Judas and Silas, who will confirm by word of mouth what we have written in this letter. It has been decided by the Holy Spirit and by ourselves not to saddle you with any burden beyond these essentials: you are to abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from the meat of strangled animals and from fornication. Avoid these, and you will do what is right. Farewell.'

This was the crucial meeting of the whole Church at Jerusalem where the decision was made that Christianity was not only for Jews but was open to the gentiles too. Paul's activity in receiving gentiles into the Church had created a crisis: was not God's promise to Abraham limited only to Jews? Was it not limited only to those who observed the prescriptions of the Law? Could the Spirit of the risen Christ really dwell in and activate the uncircumcised? The staggering breakthrough achieved here at Jerusalem totally altered the course of history. Today's reading jumps to the concluding instructions and omits the details of the debate which, in fact, provides a model for a community discussion: in the awareness of the presence of the Spirit the apostles and elders heard the facts of the case, listened to the opinions on both sides of the question put forward by experienced leaders, and then made their decision in the Spirit. The letter of instructions which follows is also a model of its kind, firm in its decisions, but firm also in its appreciation of individual consciences. The restrictions imposed on gentile Christians were designed to make fellowship with Jewish Christians possible without outraging their sensibilities.

How do I make decisions in my life? Could I learn anything from the apostles in this reading? Is there some way in which I could be more involved in the life of the Church – in the Parish, for example?

2nd Reading: Revelation 21:10-14. 22-23

The Holy City of Jerusalem

In the spirit, the angel took me to the top of an enormous high mountain and showed me Jerusalem, the holy city, coming down from God out of heaven. It had all the radiant glory of God and glittered like some precious jewel of crystal-clear diamond. The walls of it were of a great height, and had twelve gates; at each of the twelve gates there was an angel, and over the gates were written the names of the twelve tribes of Israel; on the east there were three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates. The city walls stood on twelve foundation stones, each one of which bore the name of one of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. I saw that there was no temple in the city since the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb were themselves the temple, and the city did not need the sun or the moon for light, since it was lit by the radiant glory of God and the Lamb was a lighted torch for it.

The description of the New Jerusalem, the bride of Christ, begun in last week's reading, continues to be highly symbolic. The twelve gates of the city (drawn from a prophecy in Ezekiel) face the four quarters of the compass, to show that the city embraces the whole universe and is four-square solid. They symbolise the twelve tribes of Israel and so also the twelve apostles. The richness of the city is hinted at in the sparkle of precious stones, not only of diamonds but of many others too. The dimensions of the city are vast: a cube of 1,500 miles in each direction. No need for the light and warmth of the sun, for the Lord God and the Lamb provide a single source for the city's nourishment and illumination. No need for a sacred area, for the presence of the Lord God and the Lamb make the whole city a sacred area. This vision is the ultimate goal of creation, when we share in the very life of God, the ultimate fulfilment of 'thy Kingdom come'. The Letter to the Ephesians expresses it in this way: the whole universe is 'headed up' into Christ, thus making sense of creation and bringing creation to its completion.

If I really lived in the presence of God, what would be the most daunting thing - and what the most encouraging thing?

The ultimate goal of creation, when we share the very life of God.
