GOSPEL VALUE: Our Gospel Value for next week is Peace. Please reflect on this at home with your child.

Weekly Reflection

We have been reflecting on the importance of Advent as season of preparation and this Advent we want to deepen and strengthen our close relationship with Jesus. We remember our school mission statement; 'Jesus is the centre of our lives...' and at this special time of year we follow in his footsteps and follow his example. At this busy time if we can take time to pray quietly He will be with us. There are lots of things happening in school over the next 2 weeks, giving everyone the opportunity to take a little time to stop and feel the presence of Jesus, through the beautiful readings and carols, that will be presented by the children. I would like to extend a warm welcome to all of our families to attend our 2 Carol Concerts, presented by our Year 2 and Year 3 pupils (details below).

I wish everyone a wonderful weekend.

Nativity and Festival of Light

We have had two wonderful celebrations this week to begin this special season of Advent. Our Reception and Year One children presented our Nativity play, 'Christmas Counts' with such enthusiasm and happiness it warmed all our hearts. Today we have had our Festival of Light, where the children have brought a Christingle to school to share at this special celebration. It was an emotional moment when all the candles were lit and we could take some time for quiet reflection. My sincere thanks to families for all the support with preparing the children for these. Also special thanks to Mrs Peters and all the staff involved in organising the Nativity and to Mrs Noonan and all of the Year 6 team for the Festival of Light.

Carol Concerts

We would like to extend a very warm welcome to all our families to attend our Carol Concerts. Year 2 (supported by the Choir) will present their Carol concert at 6pm on Monday 15th December at 6pm and Year 3 on Tuesday 16th December at 6pm.

Christmas Extravaganza

What a wonderful event we enjoyed this week on Thursday 4th December. It was great to see everyone enjoying the festive atmosphere and the children excited by all of the Christmas activities. It was wonderful to welcome Santa and his 2 naughty elves! Thank you for coming along to support the event and for donations you've made as all of the proceeds will go into our PTA funds to buy 'nice' things for the children and the school that our normal budget can't reach to.

Very special thanks to Mrs Slater and Mrs Gallagher for all of their hard work planning organising and delivering the event and to teachers and staff who stayed to help on stalls.

Parish Lunch

We were delighted to host our VIP guests this week at our annual Christmas Parish Lunch. It was wonderful to see so many parishioners turn up and enjoy a delicious turkey dinner cooked by our kitchen team. Special thanks to Mrs Slater and Mrs Gallagher for all of their work planning, organising and delivering the event and to the Mini Vinnies who did a fantastic job serving our guests.

Our Kitchen has 5 Stars!

Our kitchen team work so hard all year round creating delicious meals for the children and staff. They work to the highest standards of food service and hygiene and this was borne out in a recent inspection from Environmental Health. The team were awarded 5 Stars which is the highest accolade-well done!

Advent Week 2

There are lots more things to come over the last 2 weeks of this term as we enter Advent Week 2. This week we will have the Panto and Christmas jumper day and the children will have Christmas dinner. It is so important that you keep checking the calendar for updates so that you know what is happening and your child doesn't miss out.

Christmas Jumper Day

On Thursday we will have Christmas Jumper day. Children are to wear their school uniform with a Christmas jumper. We will be having a bucket collection for Save the Children, in the morning.

Holy Cross battle well in the rain!

Our girls team led by Miss Cargill faced a tough test on Thursday as they travelled to face a good Hare Street side. The rain came down and the pitch was very muddy. We decided to play 11 a-side which meant everyone could play. Hare Street took the lead early on. We made some great tackles in midfield and were unlucky not to score when Diana broke through but saw her shot saved. Tawana made some important saves but Hare Street managed to score a few more goals before half time. In the second half we put in a much improved performance, moving the ball wide to Kodie and crossing into the box. We deserved at least two goals but we could not quite make it count when in good positions. Defensively, we were more solid as Kiera, Elizabeth, Amelia H and our captain Aoife became more confident as a unit. Our midfield of Summer, Blousey, Diana and Amelia OB were winning their tackles and moving the ball up the pitch quicker to our attackers Kodie and Keziah, who both nearly scored. Hare Street added two more goals in the second half to end up deserved winners. Thanks to them for hosting us.

Well played girls! A good learning curve for us ahead of our Stacey Pardoe Cup match at home to St Nicks in January.

Goalkeeping Masterclass Earns Holy Cross a Point

Our school football team travelled to Water Lane Academy to play in the Harlow Champions League last Thursday. On a big pitch, we started quite well and took the lead through the impressive Caiden, who placed an unstoppable shot into the corner of the net. We were close to extending our lead when Caiden had another chance and his strike only just went over the bar. Water Lane then applied a lot of pressure and a mixture of some fine defending from Roman, Adam and our captain Jackson and great saves from our goalkeeper Hendrix preserved our lead. The first half was fairly even but Water Lane were definitely on top near the end of the half. Half time score - 1-0 to Holy Cross.

In the second half, we found ourselves under pressure again. The midfielders Gracie, Jaxon, Lucas T, Sebastian and Lucas J worked tirelessly to win tackles and get us up the pitch. Strikers River, Vienna-Baye and Caiden were a real threat on the counter attack. Vienna almost made it 2-0 but was thwarted by a great save by the Water Lane keeper. After that, Water Lane dominated the last 15 minutes but Hendrix was simply sensational in goal, saving from close range with his legs and tipping volleys over the bar and around the post! Finally, with 5 minutes remaining, Water Lane equalised as their striker tried to shoot, his boot flew up in the air which wrong footed Hendrix and then he got the shot away which found the far corner. We battled well to see the game out. If we are honest, we were fortunate to come away with a point against a good side. Lots of positives with our skill and resilience and things to work on too. A thoroughly enjoyable morning of football. Mr Clarke and Miss Cargill don't usually award a player of the match but today it was definitely Hendrix who must have made 10 fantastic saves! Well done everyone!

Full time score - Water Lane 1 Holy Cross 1.

Next, we face Freshwaters in another Champions League match when we host them on Thursday 11th December at the Harlow Bernabeu.

ATTENDANCE MATTERS

Congratulations to this week's winners of the KS1 Attendance Award, Hedgehogs achieving 98% attendance. The winners of this week's KS2 Attendance Award are Badgers, attaining a fantastic 100% attendance. Well done!

Please ensure you are sending your child into school everyday, unless they are not well enough to attend. Attending school is so important and makes a huge difference to your child's learning. The gates open at 8:30am until 8.55am.

It is essential you notify us of your child's absence by 9am either by telephone or using the Arbor report absence option on every day of absence. We need full details of why your child is unable to attend school. We are frequently having to contact parents, to find out why their child is absent from school. If you do not notify us of the reason for your child's absence it may not be authorised.

Absences over 3 days require supporting medical evidence, for the additional absence to be authorised. Medical evidence can take the form of prescriptions, antibiotics and medical appointments.

Parents of children below attendance targets will be invited in for a meeting with the Educational Welfare Officer.

Dear Parents and Carers,

Buying presents, decorations and planning our Christmas meal are all good ways of preparing for Christmas. But through all these preparations we do need to keep in mind the real reason for all these festivities. It's important that we spend some time preparing ourselves too.

In this Sunday's Gospel, we hear John the Baptist calling the people to repent (to come back to God) and to prepare themselves for Christ's arrival.

Wednesday 3rd December 2025

Christian 'repentance' is a wholly positive experience when we invite God into our lives and take a grip on ourselves, changing some of our ways or even, maybe, our direction in life.

So let's listen to John the Baptist and prepare our hearts well - being ready to receive and share God's love with all we meet as part of this week's Christmas PREPARATIONS.

"Prepare a path for God so that he can enter your heart."

St John Baptist De La Salle

THE GOSPEL IN CHURCH Sunday 12th December 2025

In due course John the Baptist appeared; he preached in the wilderness of Judea and this was his message: "Repent, change your ways; for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand." This was the man the prophet Isaiah spoke of when he said, 'A voice cries in the wilderness: prepare a way for the Lord, make his paths straight'. This man John wore a garment made of camel-hair with a leather belt round his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. Then Jerusalem and all Judea and the whole Jordan district made their way to him, and as they were baptised by him in the river Jordan they confessed their sins. John said to the people, "I baptise you in water for repentance, but the one who follows me is more powerful than I am, and I am not fit to carry his sandals; he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire."

2025 Preparing for Christmas: Family Time Overleaf

Having Hope
in our Families

This Sunday's Gospel reminds us to look into our hearts this Advent and see if there are any ways that we could make a change for the better. This is how we can prepare our hearts to be filled with a joy that lasts long after the Christmas festivities have passed. Let's not miss out!

Good News for Families

TOGETHER TIME

1 READ & REFLECT! Listen & Learn with Jesus, the Word!

John the Baptist was a prophet who lived in the desert. He wore clothes made of camel-hair and he ate locusts and wild honey. The people came to him to be baptised and confess their sins. John said to the people, "Repent; change your ways! Think about how you live and get ready to welcome the Lord! I baptise you with water, but someone is coming soon who is more powerful than I am, and he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit."

What did John tell the people to do?

Which word or words stood out for you in this Sunday's Gospel, and why? Spend a few relaxing moments pondering the picture together. Share any thoughts before moving on.

2 SHARE & CARE! Growing in Goodness & Love: This Wednesday's Word...

"God wishes us to prepare ourselves to receive Jesus with love; let us clear our hearts of all that could displease Him."

St Alphonsus Liguori

Advent is a time of waiting and preparation. Ask your child what the word 'preparation' means to them. When did your child last prepare for something particularly well or for something special? It may help your child if you can share something about a time when you prepared particularly well for something. How is your child preparing at school for the celebration of Jesus' birthday at Christmas?

Now is the time to prepare to celebrate Jesus' birth - God's arrival into our world in the person of Jesus. As a family, how can you prepare well for Christmas? Perhaps you can: slow down and try to remember the real reason for Christmas - regularly giving thanks to God for the gift of Jesus; read the Bible's Christmas story together; go to the Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession); make an extra effort to consider other people's needs.

PREPARATION

3 Dear Lord Jesus, please help us to prepare well for Christmas and show us how we can help others to do the same. Amen.

 The Second Sunday of Advent – Matthew 3:1-12

Relax

Make the Sign of the Cross † and remain still for a minute of settling silence. Then read the Gospel — preferably aloud and slowly — paying attention to any words that stand out to you.

This Sunday's Gospel : JOHN THE BAPTIST'S CALL TO REPENTANCE

In due course John the Baptist appeared; he preached in the wilderness of Judaea and this was his message: 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand.' This was the man the prophet Isaiah spoke of when he said: "A voice cries in the wilderness: prepare a way for the Lord, make his paths straight." This man John wore a garment made of camel-hair with a leather belt round his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. Then Jerusalem and all Judaea and the whole Jordan district made their way to him, and as they were baptised by him in the river Jordan they confessed their sins. But when he saw a number of Pharisees and Sadducees coming for baptism he said to them, 'Brood of vipers, who warned you to fly from the retribution that is coming? But if you are repentant, produce the appropriate fruit, and do not presume to tell yourselves, "We have Abraham for our father," because, I tell you, God can raise children for Abraham from these stones. Even now the axe is laid to the roots of the trees, so that any tree which fails to produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown on the fire. I baptise you in water for repentance, but the one who follows me is more powerful than I am, and I am not fit to carry his sandals; he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing-fan is in his hand; he will clear his threshing-floor and gather his wheat into the barn; but the chaff he will burn in a fire that will never go out.'

Did any words or phrases stand out to you in the Gospel? If so, take a few moments to meditate on them.

Reflect

Now read the Gospel again and consider what the Lord might be saying to you, or asking of you, through it. Then continue by reading Fr Henry Wansbrough's reflection...

'Repentance' seems an unattractive word. It conjures up images of morose brooding over past sins and failures, a negative idea. This is not what John the Baptist proclaimed. His message was wholly positive. In Hebrew and Greek the concept of 'repentance' is about a change of behaviour, a change of direction. John is calling on his listeners to change their ways, to change their scale of values, their whole direction of life. To reinforce his message he wears the clothes worn by Elijah, the prophet whom Jewish tradition taught was to return to announce the final coming of the Lord. John proclaims his message in the desert, that apocalyptic landscape of the arid and bare Jordan Valley, below sea-level, where merchants would be crossing the Jordan on the road to the East. So John makes a deliberate claim to be this final prophet and to be preparing a way for the Lord. We see Jesus as the Messiah, the loving Saviour, but John was not at this point proclaiming this Jesus. He was proclaiming the threatening and imminent arrival of the sovereignty of God, when rotten trees would be cut down and evil swept away to be burnt in unquenchable fire. If we are to be open to the arrival of the Kingship of God, we may need to look to our own scale of values.

Is my scale of values compatible with those of the Kingship of God? How far do they coincide?

Dom Henry Wansbrough OSB

Rest

Now call to mind the Lord's love for you, remembering that through this scripture the Lord is truly present. Then silently and prayerfully listen for God's voice and rest in God's love.

Respond & Request

Thank God for any insight you may have received, and respond by asking the Holy Spirit to bless you with a spiritual gift or help you to grow in a particular fruit of the Spirit. You might pray for wisdom, courage, faithfulness, self-control, patience, generosity, joy, kindness, love, peace, faith, chastity - or another grace - to help you live out your faith this week.

Remember

This Wednesday's word for our families is PREPARATION!
 (To see the Family Version, please visit: wednesdayword.org)

As you pray for your loved ones, please remember to pray for the Church and for the families connected to our schools.

St Joseph, Patron Saint of Families and Protector of the Church, pray for us. Mary, Star of Evangelisation, pray for us. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Wednesday Word Plus †

If you'd like to spend more prayerful time with God through the First and Second Readings, follow the same process for praying with the Gospel (overleaf). Gently place the First or Second Reading and Fr Henry's reflection into that same prayerful rhythm for more fruitful meditation with God's Word.

First Reading: A Shoot from the Stock of Jesse

Isaiah 11:1-10

A shoot springs from the stock of Jesse, a scion thrusts from his roots: on him the spirit of the Lord rests, a spirit of wisdom and insight, a spirit of counsel and power, a spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord. The fear of the Lord is his breath. He does not judge by appearances, he gives no verdict on hearsay, but judges the wretched with integrity, and with equity gives a verdict for the poor of the land. His word is a rod that strikes the ruthless; his sentences bring death to the wicked. Integrity is the loincloth round his waist, faithfulness the belt about his hips. The wolf lives with the lamb, the panther lies down with the kid, calf and lion cub feed together with a little boy to lead them. The cow and the bear make friends, their young lie down together. The lion eats straw like the ox. The infant plays over the cobra's hole; into the viper's lair the young child puts his hand. They do no hurt, no harm, on all my holy mountain, for the country is filled with the knowledge of the Lord as the waters swell the sea. That day, the root of Jesse shall stand as a signal to the peoples. It will be sought out by the nations and its home will be glorious.

From this reading the seven gifts of the Spirit are, rather artificially, derived. Seven is the perfect number, so this prophetic text intends to signify that the promised ruler will have all possible gifts of what we more generally call wisdom and understanding. He will be a ruler before whom one can stand in the secure knowledge that his judgment will be deeply fair and satisfying. The 'fear of the Lord' ensures that the ruler will govern in accordance with the divinely-ordered bases of creation. Just such a Ruler is the one we are waiting for at Christmas. It was surely these qualities which made Jesus such an attractive and charismatic figure, so that he could, as a wholly unknown stranger, pass those fishermen, and they would drop everything and respond to his call, 'Follow me'. Confrontation with his person was shock enough and inspiring enough to cure sickness. His simple word gave assurance of forgiveness of sin. His command reduced the elements of nature to serenity. In the second half of the reading we see the consequences of this rule: a return to the peace of the Garden of Eden. No more hostility, no more jealousy. Nature, even human nature, will not be red in tooth and claw.

What qualities do you find attractive in Jesus?

Second Reading: The Generosity of Christ

Romans 15:4-9

Everything that was written long ago in the scriptures was meant to teach us something about hope from the examples scripture gives of how people who did not give up were helped by God. And may he who helps us when we refuse to give up, help you all to be tolerant with each other, following the example of Christ Jesus, so that united in mind and voice you may give glory to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. It can only be to God's glory, then, for you to treat each other in the same friendly way as Christ treated you. The reason Christ became the servant of circumcised Jews was not only so that God could faithfully carry out the promises made to the patriarchs, it was also to get the pagans to give glory to God for his mercy, as scripture says in one place: For this I shall praise you among the pagans and sing your name.

Paul is here summing up his message to the Romans, a fragmented community of several house-churches, some drawn from the Jewish community, some from the gentiles. He has described and analysed Christ's work of salvation, the generosity of Christ in giving himself up for us, to win us back to the Father. Then he calls upon his hearers to imitate Christ's generosity. He speaks first to the Christians sprung, like himself, from Judaism, reminding them of the promises of scripture (the heritage of Judaism) which were to inspire them with hope, for God's promises are never-failing and sure. Then he reminds them with a string of quotations (only the first of which is given at the end of today's reading) that God's promises were intended for the gentiles too, so that they too should praise God's name. Why are we given this reading in Advent? Because the perfect generosity of Jesus Christ in taking on this work of our salvation must be the model for our own generosity, both to those who are our natural friends and to those who are not, and because it must be the basis of our hope; however neglectful and ungrateful we are, Christ's work for us cannot have been in vain.

In what way can I be more generous to prepare for Christmas, especially to those who are not my natural friends?

“The perfect generosity of Jesus Christ must be the model for our own generosity.”
