

7th January 2022

Dear Parents and Carers,
Welcome back to a new year, a new school term and a belated Happy New Year to all. We celebrated the Feast of The Epiphany at Mass on Thursday morning, that marvellous moment where the Wise Men from the East, who had followed a star, arrived in Bethlehem to worship the baby Jesus.

The Wise Men presented gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. The children were reminded that we too can worship Jesus in a practical way by sharing the gifts of gentleness, kindness, patience, tolerance and understanding towards others. Thank you to Year 6 for such a meaningful and thought provoking start to the new term.

A Welcome to Holy Cross

We would like to extend a warm welcome to Holy Cross to the following children who have joined us: Demilade Ajayi, Stephanie Marincheva and Aniyah Adenuga and to Mrs Alex, who has joined us to teach in 5S. We hope they will be very happy with us here at Holy Cross.

COVID-19 Update

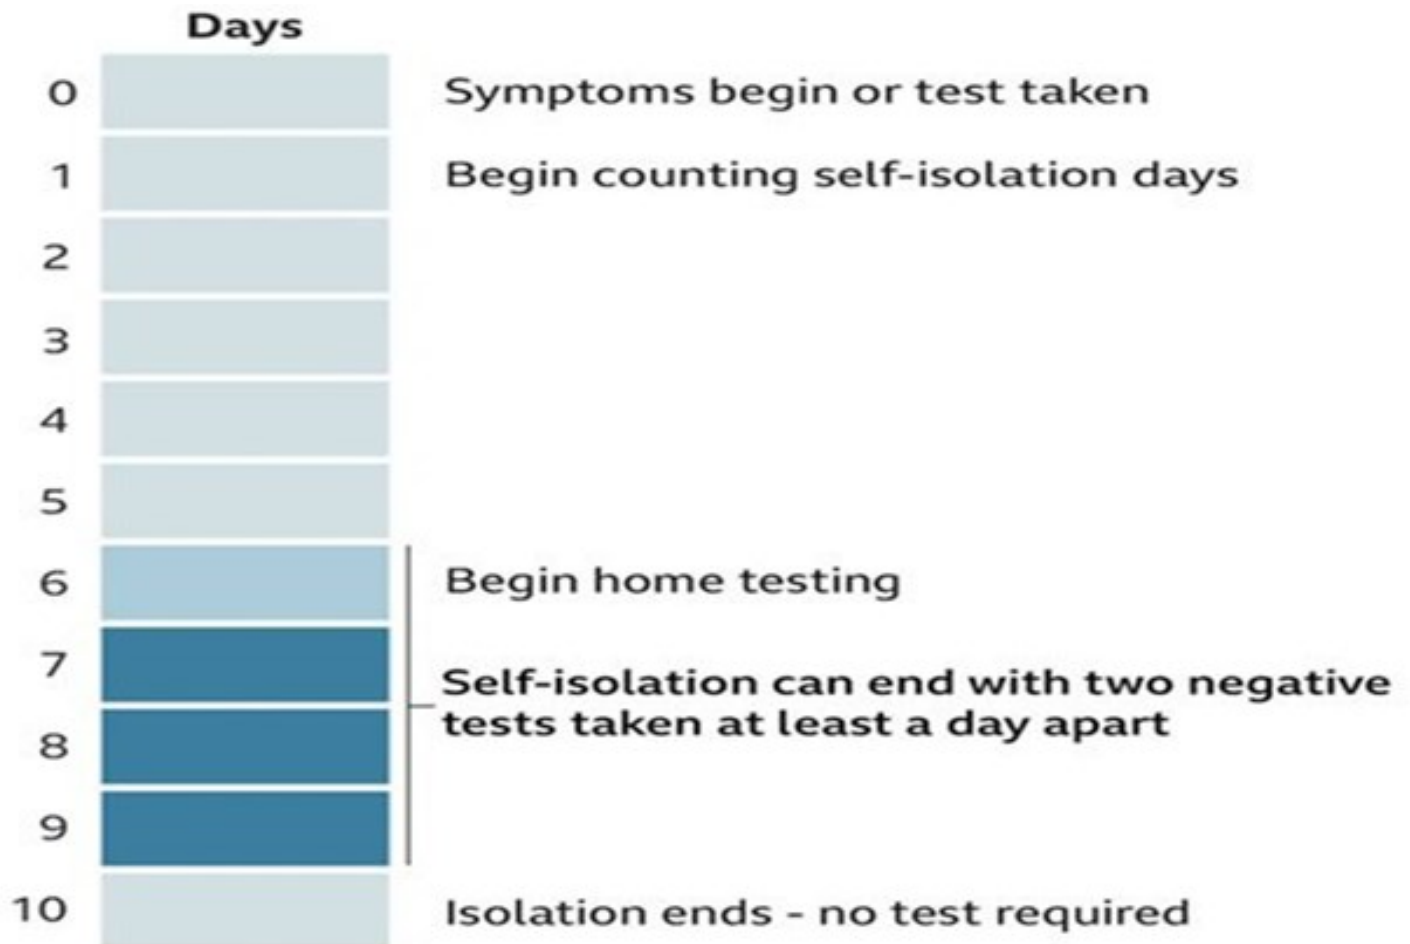

We are providing a further update this week as you may have seen the latest change to national guidance regarding positive LFD tests, and we wanted to clarify what this means for you.

The requirement for confirmatory PCR tests is to be temporarily suspended for positive lateral flow test results. From Tuesday 11th January 2022, in England, people who receive positive lateral flow results for COVID-19 will be required to self-isolate immediately and won't be required to take a confirmatory PCR test. This is a temporary measure while COVID-19 rates remain high across the UK.

Under this new approach, anyone who receives a positive lateral flow device (LFD) test result should report their result on Gov.uk and must self-isolate immediately but will not need to take a follow-up PCR test. After reporting a positive LFD test result, they will be contacted by NHS Test and Trace so that their contacts can be traced and must continue to self-isolate.

In line with the reduced self-isolation approach announced on 22nd December, anyone who tests positive will be able to leave self-isolation 7 days after the date of their initial positive test if they receive two negative LFD results, 24 hours apart, on days 6 and 7-this includes children.

The test date or symptom start date is day 0, with isolation then being carried out for 10 full days, or LFD testing can start on day 6 but no sooner for release on day 7. See the chart on the next page for guidance.

Holy Cross New Reading Ambassadors

A group of children from Year 6 have volunteered to become our Reading Ambassadors. They will promote reading throughout the school through different reading initiatives

Today saw the start of the Reading Suitcase, encouraging children to read in their free time.

RELIGIOUS LIFE AT HOLY CROSS

Based on the gospel for 9 January, Baptism of the Lord: Luke 3:15-16

"He will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire."

Jesus didn't get baptised until he was 30. I didn't get confirmed until I was nearly 40. I was so happy to have been "sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit". As the Bishop anointed me with oil, I really did feel like God gave me a kiss on the forehead and whispered, "This is my beloved daughter in whom I am well pleased."

Not long after, I had an email from a young woman that I'd been exchanging messages with for a few months as a volunteer mentor on a Christian website. Shantel (not her real name) wrote, "I've been reading the Bible...you know, where it says that God doesn't have favourites...well, I'm struggling to believe that this is really so..."

Shantel is someone who's reading the Bible on the other side of the globe. In the midst of poverty, deprivation, exclusion and isolation. And no, she has not given up on God's word or God himself. Rather, she is a psalmist and a prophet who calls to us across the seas.

Do we seek to create a world where there are no favourites, where no one feels abandoned and alone?

Father, may we never forget how much you love all your children throughout the earth - each and every one of whom deserves to live in safety and dignity.
Amen.

All can work together to build a more peaceful world, starting from the hearts of individuals and relationships in the family, then within society and with the environment, and all the way up to relationships between peoples and nations.

1 Enjoy reading the Gospel

Filled with excitement, the people were wondering if John the Baptist might be the Christ, so John said to them, "I baptise you with water, but someone is coming, someone who is more powerful than I am and he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit." Then, after the people had been baptised by John, Jesus himself was baptised. While Jesus was praying the sky opened and the Holy Spirit came down on him like a dove. And a voice from heaven said, "You are my beloved Son, and with you I am very pleased."

Which words stood out for you in this Gospel, and why? What does the picture make you think about? Enjoy exploring this Wednesday's word, which is BAPTISM.

"Faith is a gift which we receive in Baptism and which allows us to encounter God." Pope Francis

What was John the Baptist doing? In Church this Sunday we celebrate a special feast – the Baptism of the Lord. The new year presents an opportunity to remember, or to discover, the blessings received at Baptism. Ask your child what else they know about baptism. If your child has been baptised, do they know where they were baptised and who baptised them? Do they know their godparents? You might also like to share with your child any memories you have of their baptism and how you chose their name. Perhaps you have photographs to show them.

At Jesus' Baptism, the Holy Spirit came down on Jesus making him ready to begin his great work: to draw us all into his family so that we can become more like him and joyfully share in God's own life.

How can we live more like Jesus as we begin this new year? Perhaps we can: always try to help around the home; remember to start each morning with a prayer and thank God for each new day and for each other; make a new start with church; as a family, resolve to support a charity in 2022; be peacemakers and try to make friends with someone we've fallen out with. You may like to choose something new to start together that will strengthen your family.

Dear Lord Jesus, you are God's beloved Son. Thank you for the gift of baptism. May we always remember that we too are the beloved children of God. Amen.

Write a promise and then draw a big smile on Smiley

Prayerfully preparing for the Sunday Mass and praying in particular for our school families

Preparing for the Mass of Sunday 9th January 2022 - The Baptism of the Lord

1 Relax & Remember

Set aside 10 -15 minutes and create a suitable environment by removing any distractions. Make sure that you are comfortable. Perhaps light a candle. Make the sign of the cross † and remain still for a minute of settling silence. Call to mind the love that God has for you. Remember that through this scripture our Lord is truly present. Then read the Gospel, preferably aloud and slowly, and pay attention to any words that stand out. If any do, meditate on them for a few minutes and be invited into a dialogue with God.

2 Read

Taken from the Gospel for Sunday 9th January 2022 - The Coming of the Spirit (Luke 3:15-16. 21-22)

A feeling of expectancy had grown among the people, who were beginning to think that John might be the Christ, so John declared before them all, "I baptise you with water, but someone is coming, someone who is more powerful than I am, and I am not fit to undo the strap of his sandals; he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire." Now when all the people had been baptised and while Jesus after his own baptism was at prayer, heaven opened and the Holy Spirit descended on him in bodily shape, like a dove. And a voice came from heaven: "You are my son, the Beloved; my favour rests on you."

3 Reflect

After spending a few minutes considering this Gospel, continue by reading Fr Henry Wansbrough's reflection.

Luke does not tell us who baptised Jesus. In Luke the story of John the Baptist ends with his promise of one who will baptise with the Holy Spirit - then John is arrested. At the baptism itself all Luke's concentration is on the coming of the Spirit. Indeed, it is hardly an account of the baptism at all, for the baptism is only a time marker for the coming of the Spirit when "Jesus, after his own baptism, was at prayer". Jesus' mission begins with the coming of the Spirit. In the same way, Luke's second volume (the Acts of the Apostles) begins with the coming of the Spirit at Pentecost. It is as though Luke wants to show the importance of the Spirit from beginning to end of the Christian life. And this is the case: in both books the part played by the Spirit directs all the action. The same is still true in the Christian community today, though sometimes human stubbornness and blindness does its best to impede the leadership and guidance of the Spirit. Most of us are artists at blocking the Spirit when the Spirit's promptings are inconvenient! What does Luke's account of Jesus' baptism tell us about the Holy Spirit?

4 Respond & Request

Now slowly and prayerfully read the Gospel once again but this time in silence. Consider how this Gospel could apply to your life in general. Then thank God for any insight you may have received. Conclude by asking God to bless you with one of the following spiritual gifts to help you act on any resolution you have made: love, understanding, wisdom, faithfulness, peace, self control, patience, or joy. Please remember to pray for the Church and particularly our school families. Then conclude by requesting the prayers of Our Lady & St Joseph.

WEDNESDAY WORD PLUS +

Fr Henry's reflections on the first and second readings of Sunday 9th January 2022

First Reading: Console my People, Console them

Isaiah 40:1-5. 9-11

"Console my people, console them," says your God. "Speak to the heart of Jerusalem and call her that her time of service is ended, that her sin is atoned for, that she has received from the hand of the Lord double punishment for all her crimes." A voice cries, "Prepare in the wilderness a way for the Lord. Make a straight highway for our God across the desert. Let every valley be filled in, every mountain and hill be laid low, let every cliff become a plain, and the ridges a valley; then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed and all mankind shall see it; for the mouth of the Lord has spoken." Go up on a high mountain, joyful messenger to Zion. Shout with a loud voice, joyful messenger to Jerusalem. Shout without fear; say to the towns of Judah, "Here is your God." Here is the Lord coming with power, his arm subduing all things to him. The prize of his victory is with him; his trophies all go before him. He is like a shepherd feeding his flock, gathering lambs in his arms, holding them against his breast and leading to their rest the mother ewes.

The reading from Isaiah for today is the joyful song which opens the second part of Isaiah. After the 70 years of the Exile the people of Israel are looking forward to the return to Jerusalem, aware that they are soon to be released from their captivity. They have 'served their sentence' in Babylon and their sin has been forgiven. The Lord will lead them in joy across the great desert as he led them across the desert at Exodus, and will manifest his glory again. For Christians the excitement is that John the Baptist picks up this message as he prepares for the coming of Christ. We can see the fulfilment of this passage from Isaiah in the coming of Christ in history and in his future return in glory. Christ brings about his Kingship of God, but it is for us Christians, as we await his coming again, to show by our lives the glory and the love and the generosity of God to a world which refuses to see the splendour of his coming. This is the daunting responsibility of those who bear the name of 'Christian', who see in Jesus the manifestation of God's reign.

How today do we best manifest God's reign and fulfil our mission as Church?

Second Reading: Reborn in the Cleansing Waters

Titus 2:11-14; 3:4-7

God's grace has been revealed, and it has made salvation possible for the whole human race and taught us that what he has to do is give up everything that does not lead to God, and all our worldly ambitions; we must be self-restrained and live good and religious lives here in this present world, while we are waiting in hope for the blessing which will come with the Appearing of the glory of our great God and saviour Christ Jesus. He sacrificed himself for us in order to set us free from all wickedness and to purify a people so that it could be his very own and would have no ambition except to do good. When the kindness and love of God our saviour were revealed, it was not because he was concerned with any righteous actions we might have done ourselves; it was for no reason except his own compassion that he saved us, by means of the cleansing water of rebirth and by renewing us with the Holy Spirit which he has so generously poured over us through Jesus Christ our saviour. He did this so that we should be justified by his grace, to become heirs looking forward to inheriting eternal life.

The phrase in this reading which seizes the attention is "he saved us, by means of the cleansing water of rebirth and by renewing us with the Holy Spirit". Is this referring to Jesus' baptism or to yours and mine? My guess is that in the original letter it referred to our baptism, but that, by putting it forward on the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, the church is referring it to Jesus' baptism as the model of your and my baptism. We received in our baptism the same re-birth as children of God and the same renewal in the Holy Spirit as Jesus did in the Jordan. The image of birth from the waters is a fascinating one, and can be taken on many levels: the ocean as the great, turbulent place from which all life derives, the source of life and fertility for plants, animals and humans, the 'waters' of each mammal's birth. By the waters of baptism we are given a wholly new life as adopted sons of God. We have seen how, in Luke's account of the Baptism of Jesus, the coming of the Spirit is the main focus. On us too the Spirit comes at baptism and empowers us to do all kinds of good works beyond any human ability.

How do we see the Holy Spirit at work in our own particular local Church community?

“Jesus baptism is the model of your and my baptism.”
